What the Boys are Doing Here and There

Mrs. Frank A. Titus went to the bay district this week to witness the graduation of her son, Naval Aviation Cadet Frank Titus from the pre-flight training school at St. Mary's College. The ceremony will be held Saturday, November 27. Frank then will proceed to an advanced flying base to complete the last stages of his war time education. Congratulations, Frank and happy landings.

Mrs. Bert Weeden has received some pictures from her son, Coastguardman Keeth Weeden, now in the Pacific war zone. One picture shows Keeth with a wide grin while busy peeling a pile of potatoes. His appearance was very reassuring to his family and we would suggest that more of you boys send pictures home when possible. They bulid the morale on the home-front no end.

A Chirstmas card this week from our good friend, Staff Sgt. Ervin Waters, now believed somewhere in the Altantic war theater. Thanks, Erv and next Christmas we hope we can say it in person—Merry Christmas.

Charlie Pierce who is back in Australia after a long siege in nearby New Guinea, writes that he believes that Kenneth Carson, another former Truckee boy, was among those who relieved his unit in the fight. A small world, indeed.

Pvt. Ralph Bretthauer who is now stationed at Camp Adair, Oregon, is spending a furlough here. Ralph was a machine gunner but has been transferred to a mortar squad. He has been on rugged maneuvers for several months and is in tip-top condition. He expects his infantry organization may soon be in there pitching.

From in the land "down under" Phil Kearney wrote home that he has not had malaria and is in good spirit. He sent congratulations to newylweds, Signalman and Mrs. Bob Leamon now in New Orleans and wanted Corp. Doug Barrett's address at the other end of the Pacific.

Albert Ring of Auburn and Truckee is scheduled to go to Monterey on December 6 for military service. He and the former Miss Yvonne Joseph were married last July.

This is Thanksgiving Day, boys and as we hesitate in our worldy pursuits to offer thanks for those many blessings which are ours, we sincerely hope that that promised pound of turkey for each of you was not a bit of bunk, but a pound of that fine old bird.

FORMER LOCAL MAN DIES FROM BURNS IN FREAK ACCIDENT

Funeral services for John Hallbom, 73, former Truckee resident and more recently a carpenter at Auburn, who died at an Auburn hospital Sunday of burns received when a bottle of linament held close to a fire exploded in his hand, were held Tuesday at Auburn

The fatal burns occurred in Hallbom's home. He had been a sufferer with arthritis for years and was plying the linament when the accident hapened.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Jennie Hallbom of Auburn, his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson of Hayward and a brother, Arvid Hallbom of Auburn. Hallbom went to Auburn from Truckee in 1922 after residing here for 16 years. He was a native of Sweden. Here he owned and occupied the house now owned by William Bottcher on River street.

NO CHANGE SEEN IN SUGAR RATIONING

No change is planned in the present sugar rationing program, Ralph G Fletcher, district rationing executive for the OPA in Sacramento district has announced. "The present outlook does not justify the rumors that are being circulated as to the possibility of discontinuance of the sugar rationing program or even a substantial liberalization," he said.

RATION POINTS WILL SPUR GREASE DRIVE

In order to spur the kitchen fats salvage campaign, the Office of Price Administration announced that it will authorize retail meat dealers and other fat salvagers to give two points a pound for fats returned by housewives and others. The new plan will be put into effect on December 13.

WAR FUND DRIVE HERE GOES OVER THE TOP AS USUAL

As usual Truckee and the adjacent area, more than went over the top in its drive for the War Chest Fund.

Under the capable hands of the Truckee Lions Club, the area raised a total of $1210. The local quota had been set at $1,000.

Chairman R. N. Little in making his report to the club at the meeting last night said he was not certain if the full amount is to be sent in or if the amount over the quota can be turned to local work or held for future drives.

With a total of $427 on his slate, W. M. Englehart, Sr., topped other volunteers in the drive.

Truck Destroys Local Home In Freak Accident

Driver Escapes as Tanker Wrecked Against Local House

Henry Ault, 40, of Richmond, driver of a fully loaded Lang Trnasportation Company tank truck and trailer escaped with minor injuries late Saturday night in one of the most spectacular motor vehicle accidents in this area for some time.

Ault was proceeding east with a capacity load of Ethyl gasoline when his truck got out of control as he rounded the curve at the west entrance to Truckee. The vehicle skiddid in the loose snow, left the road and overturned into the small house owned and recently occupied by the Harry A. Eaton family. The trailer ripped the house from its foundation and tore out the front wall, the big tank coming to rest upside down in the front room. The truck overturned and stood on its top. The driver escaped by breaking the glass from the cab window. He suffered only a bruised shoulder.

A power pole and fence were also destroyed in the mad flight of the truck. State Patrolman Paul Norboe made the investigation but issued no citation.

Car Off Grade

A second accident resulting from the snow storm last weekend occurred half way up Donner grade when a car driven by Joseph E. Burton, 36, San Francisco shipyard worker attempted to pass a truck while descending the grade and got out of control and left the highway. No one was injured. The mishap occurred Sunday afternoon and was investigated by Patrolman William Gautsche.

Also on the program will be dancing and refreshments.

Scoutmaster Reuben Swett and Scout Executive Charles Brunk are in charge of arrangements. The boys have worked diligently to make the affair a success and the program should attract a big attendance.

School Robbed; Machines Taken

Using identical methods employed in a similar burglary a year ago, thieves sometime Tuesday night entered the Meadow Lake Union High School here and stole three nearly new Underwood typewriters from the typing room of the building.

Constable N. F. Dolley, who with Deputy A. Pace, investigated the burglary, said the thieves entered the building through a rear window by reaching through a transom to loosen the window lock. The robbery this time last year was accomplished the same way. Last year, however, the four machines missing from the room were found cached nearby. No trace of the three typewriters stolen this time has been found.

The burglary was reported by the principal, G. E. Hofmann, who opened the school yesterday morning.

Dolley declared he was working on definite clues and may soon arrest the culprits.

The distance between Sparks and Massie is 46 miles, but the centralized control actually will be between Vista, three miles east of here and Massie, as double track is already laid between here and Vista.

by WALTER M. BARRETT

There are without any doubt many things for us as individuals and as a nation to be thankful for this fine Thanksgiving Day, but it's difficult for us to get in a thanksgiving mood when all we have to do is pick up a newspaper, magazine, turn on the radio or even enter a conversation on the street and hear stories of violent savagery which is blanketing the world. Truly, aside from all this blood-lust, suffering and heart-breaks, there are numerous things for which we should be devoutly thankful. We, here in the United States at least, may well be thankful that we are far removed from the war scenes This year we are thankful for many little things—our homes, our country, our way of living—but let us all pray that on next Thanksgiving Day we can be thankful that the war is only another dark page in history and that lust, cruelties and hatreds are things of the past. Then and only then can we be deeply and sincerely thankful.

For the most part these big trucks and trailers that travel our highways are carrying vital war materials and for that reason alone, we think, they should be allowed certain privileges not ordinarily granted. But these privileges should not be permitted to become dangers to the lives and property of others. Road hogging and speed are two items which should be absolutely forbidden these cumbersome vehicles, but more and more they seem to be taking advantage of their necessity to the war effort and more and more the rights of others on the same highways are being neglected. Then too, excessive speed often results in accidents to the carriers and their semi-precious cargos. We believe that every possible care should be taken to preserve all war materials and hauling equipment and part of this care should be the prevention of accidents by a ban on excessive speed or other infractions of the rules of the road.

Plan now to attend the Boy Scout benefit show and entertainment at Legion Hall December 3. These boys have justified your support and they promise a real, bang-up show.

LAST RITES HELD IN ROSEVILLE FOR CHARLES LA PORTE

Officers of the Truckee squad of the California Highway Patrol last Saturday morning attended the last rites held in Roseville for Captain Charles J. LaPorte, a member of the patrol since 1929 and for many years a captain who expired at his home following an extended illness.

A native of New York, LaPorte came to California 27 years ago and spent 23 years in Roseville. He was a veteran of World War No. 1 and served overseas with the air corps.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rosa LaPorte; a son, Charles J., Jr., and a sister, Mrs. George Massi of Sacramento.

Members of the local squad who worked under Captain LaPorte formed the guard of honor at the services.

SHEEPMEN PLEDGE FULL PRODUCTION DESPITE GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.— California sheepmen today stood pledged anew to maximum production of wool and lambs for the nation, despite discouraging government rules and regulations that they say hamper the industry.

Their action was taken at the 83rd annual convention of the California Woolgrowers Association, just ended here, in a resolution which said:

"Despite our protests against the restrictions of conflicting regulations which definitely limit our ability to produce to the fullest degree, we pledge ourselves to produce lambs and wool to our fullest capacity and ask only the same consideration and cooperation from governmental agencies that are extended to other war industries."

The sheepmen voiced unalterable opposition to federal subsidies but favored continuation of the government wool purchase program. All officers were reelected.

Back From Vacation—

Sergeant B. W. Reynolds who has enjoyed a 20 day vacation from his duties with the highway patrol here returned to his work Tuesday.

Study Continues On Ownership Of Lake Bottom

Hope Fades For Preventing Companies Drawing Off Water

Little progress had been made in determining the ownership of the land below the water of Donner Lake, but the prospects are not too bright for early settlement of the controversy, according to word from Edward Fennon, manager of the Sacramento Valley district of the State Chamber of Commerce, who has taken an active part in determining the true status of the situation.

"The sill has been established as being at an elevation of 5,924 feet," Fennon wrote, "and I am informed that the level of Donner Lake has been drawn down to this elevation.

"The more I go into the ownership of the lake bottom, the more involved the situation becomes. The entire question of whether or not the bottom is owned by private interests or the state or federal government revolves about the question of navigability of the water. Donner Lake is not included by Congress in the waters which it has designated as navigable and, while this does not necessarily determine navigability, it is a pretty fair indication.

"It has become apparent that the lake is not navigable in point of law and certainly it is not in point of fact and, unless a search of title should disclose some provision as to ownership, then it is pretty well established that the Donner Land Company owns the land, not only to the rim of the lake but to the middle as well."

The division of water resources is making some further studies with a view of bringing this information to light, but which probably will not change this conclusion. I am informed that the only positive way to determine this ownership beyond any question is by court action and, even then, the situation as outlined above probably would not be changed."

According to the established sill of 5924 feet, this would mean that the lake can be lowered from its maximum level of 5935.4 feet, only about 11 feet. Application for still further lowering the sill by an additional 5.5 feet has been considered, it was understood. The purchase of the water from the Donner Lake Company by the Truckee Carson Irrigation District and the Sierra Pacific Power Company was announced some weeks ago and the Truckee Chamber of Commerce appealed to state agencies through the state chamber to block the plans to draw off excessive lake water.

CEILING ON CITRUS TO BE REDUCED

Retail ceilings for the citrus crop now coming to market will be reduced from 10 to 15 per cent compared with prices in the 1942-43 season, the Office of Price Administration has announced. Growers will be allowed a somewhat higher return than last season, however.

SECOND HAND ITEMS HAVE CEILING PRICE

The Office of Price Administration of the Sacramento district today called to the attention of Northern California a list of scarce second-hand items which are subject to price control hen sold by a private party.

Used domestic washing machines, mechanical refrigerators, used typewriters, vacuum cleaners, metal coil and flat bedsprings, tires and tubes, and egg crates have price ceilings, and anyone contemplating the sale or purchase of such articles is advised to call or write his local war price and rationing board for such information. Aside from the articles named, sales by private individuals of used personal or household effects are exempt from price control.

STILL USE FOR CAN OPENER IN COUNTY

Rationing has not emptied the shelves of Nevada county residents of canned foods it was revealed this week, a total of 130,160 cans being used monthly, according to the available figures based on the governments compilation of 19,283 ration book holders in the county and the statement by the U.S. Bureau of Agriculture Economics that the per capita consumption of canned goods so far this year is .225 cans per day.

Look over all of the appliances in your home. Check particularly those appliances you use constantly like the range, vacuum cleaner, refrigerator, washing machine and iron or ironer. Do any of these need repair or reconditioning?

You will be wise now to Duration-ize your appliances with timely repair. That means catching repairs in time before a complete breakdown occurs.

If your old equipment must be replaced—do it now. Some new appliances are still available in store stocks. Otherwise be sure to take care of what you have. Keep it in repair. Make sure it will carry-on with efficient service. It is a wartime necessity.

TAHOE LETTER

* * * *

To the Service Men

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, Nov. 21st

Dear Tahoeites:

Sunday again, but what a change in the weather from last week! Hills and forests, fences and rooftops tonight lie silent and beautiful in their first coat of winter ermine, for all the world resemblying the old-fashioned Christmas cards we will soon be mailing to our friends.

The storm started Friday with a steady rainfall, followed by a gradual conversion to wet snow which frosted the montain tops and melted quickly in the lowlands. Saturday morning the sun shone bright and clear, but before three in the afternoon great white fluffy snowflakes were wending their way earthward with a vengeance. At Tahoe City W. A. Simmonds reported a ottal of one and a half inches, but in the foothills and montains the depths ran to ten and 12 inches. Tonight all is white, with snow still falling in the high places. Temperatures remain about the same as last week, with a low of 24 reported this morning.

Leaving tomorrow for his physical examination is Rex Tollefsen, 19, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tollefsen of Big Chief and Homewood, who accompanied by his dad will go to Auburn. It he passed he will return for a three weeks of freedom before donning the army khaki. Good luck to you, Rex!

From Camp Hale in Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bechdolt, Sr., last week learned that son, Billie, stationed there with the ski troops, has been elevated to the status of instructor. The camp now boast between one and two feet of fresh snow and we know Bill is right in the heigth of his glory.

Miss Kathleen Starratt, daughter of the A. M. Andersons of Tahoe has finally received confirmation from Red Cross headquarters in San Francisco that she has passed all requirements and has been appointed staff assistant in navy and military welfare work. She, like Marilyn Hinkle, is eagerly awaiting word which will start her on a wartme career promising not only an exciting future but a chance to put a shoulder to the great wheel of humanitarian service during this greatest of all world crises. She expects to leave Tahoe Friday entraining for Washington, D. C., where her Red Cross probationary welfare training will begin at American University. Marilyn who joined the U. S. Marine corps recently is champing at the bit waiting daily for the summons which will delegate her to a training station and the natty uniform. We Tahoeites at home wish them the best of good luck in their worthy forthcoming careers.

With Thansgiving one aagin with us we know you boys will be thinking of home and all it means at the holiday time. One of the lucky few to receive a furlough this week was Tech. Sgt. Kieth Tackett of Camp Roberts field artillery, who is enjoying the 15-day visit with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Tackett of the Drum Estate, Meeks Bay. He returns to camp on November 29. Also at home for a vacation are Miss Minola Tackett, their daughter who is taking a secretarial course at a San F.rancisco business college, and another daughter, Geraldine, a war worker in the bay area who is spending a week here.

Also arriving from San Francisco for a gala family dinner Thansgiving day is Rex Tackett, another son, forem rclerk in Atherton's Grovery now doing war work in tht bay area. All in all, it will be a jolly time for the Tackett family of the Drum estate.

My family was deeply saddened last week to learn of the death of Captain Charles LaPorte of Roseville, despite the fact we had known that his death was only a matter of time. We had been friends for years and I reacll being a guest at Rosa's engagement party and shower at the Art Sather home in Auburn before her marriage ot the jovial and popular officer. His many Tahoe friends will always remember his ready smile and affable manners, he never being too busy or too important to take time out for a friendly chat. We extend his his widow and small son sincere sympathy.

Mrs. Stella Watson announces this week that she has assumed charge of the collections for the Naitonal War Fund Drive in the Tahoe ergion and requests anyone desiring to donate toward this great humanitarian cause to give what they can any amount being welcome. The drive in this district because of tis late start will continue until December 1.

This week America again observes one of its most beloved holidays—Thanksgiving Day! We have been reading the sumptuos bills of fare that you boys in the service have been promised and we are happy that you will at least enjoy that grand old bird that always highlights this memorable occasion, one of our "old American customs." We will all find numerous blessings for which to be thankful this year, in spite of world upheaval, many of you boys being thankful just still to be alive. And whether the holiday finds you figthing the Germans in Italy, where life is just one hill after another; in the treacherous jungle hugging to your breasts your knives, rifles and bibles; in a hospital recuperting from wounds of battle or still in training camps preparing for actual parcipitation in the greatest battle of the ages, we at home want you to know that you are never absent from our thoughts and prayers and our happiest moment will come when the last big gun has belched forth its final message of death and destruction and when men of all nations have laid down their guns, have cleansed their hearts of hatred and returned to their accustomed walks of life, to take up the broken threads as best they can once more. As the old song goes: "When each mother's son, has laid down his gun, What a wonderful day that will be!" That is for what we pray, but until it arrives we will endeavor to fulfill your request to "send us the bullets and bombs and we will send them where they will do the most good." Awaiting that day of victory, let us all be thankful to call our own the greatest nation on earth. America And we at home are most thankful that you boys out there in the thick of things are not afraid to die, that we may live and your beloved nation survive. It is my belief that one day soon Thanksgiving Day will take on new meaning for us all and become for all time the most reverenced holyday on our calendar.

Athlough many of your hearts will be heavy with loneliness in far off places of the world, this Thursday we wish you Godspeed and the choicest of the holiday blessings. May Peace and Victory become realities before the end of 1943!

As ever, SWANEE.

Tahoe Schools

On Wednesday a bit of excitement was caused at the Tahoe Lake school when Mrs. George Tiffee's car parked on the school grounds, had the brakes give way sending the machine smashing into the building where it tore out some of the board siding and damaged plumbing in a rest room. The car suffered only a dented bumper.
